Sebasticook Valley Federal Credit Union Raises $3,800 During 4th Annual Golf Tournament

100% of the Proceeds Support the Maine Credit Unions' Campaign for Ending Hunger

Pittsfield, Maine, July 31, 2008 ... Sebasticook Valley Federal Credit Union (SVFCU), a dedicated community financial institution, today announced that its Annual Golf Tournament was once again a huge success, raising $3,800, all of which was donated to the Maine Credit Unions' Campaign for Ending Hunger.

The Golf Tournament, which took place on Saturday, July 19, at J.W. Parks Golf Course in Pittsfield, is one of SVFCU's many fundraising efforts for this year's campaign. In comparison with last year's event, the 2008 golf tournament attracted 12 more golfers, for a total of 44 people, and also raised $500 more. Adding to the exciting day was news that Troy Chipman of Hartland had his very first hole-in-one on the 13th hole.

"It was great to see so many more members participate in this year's golf tournament and help increase our total donation amount," said Jim Lemieux, President, Sebasticook Valley Federal Credit Union. "We are truly grateful to our entire membership for their great enthusiasm and continued support for the Ending Hunger Campaign."

Earlier this year, SVFCU worked with the Valley Arts Alliance to sell paintings at the credit union's Pittsfield branch, with a portion of the proceeds supporting the Ending Hunger Campaign.

The Maine Credit Unions' Campaign for Ending Hunger was established in 1990. Today, nearly all of Maine's credit unions participate in the program. Since the beginning of the campaign, more than $2.7 million has been raised to help end hunger in Maine.
